Police issue warning after break-ins

POLICE are warning residents to lock up their sheds, outbuildings and garages in the run up to Christmas, following a spate of break-ins.

In total, seven break-ins and two attempted break-ins were reported over the course of last weekend.

Power tools worth hundreds of pounds, golf clubs and a motorcross bike are some of the items stolen in the three-day spree.

Two separate addresses in Chauntry Road were burgled overnight between Friday and Saturday, with a nail gun and pressure washer stolen.

Four further incidents took place overnight between Saturday and Sunday.

Two sheds in Chainey Pieces and one in Chauntry Road were targeted, with one attempt unsuccessful.

An attempted burglary also took place at a garage in Woodcock Close.

A motorcross bike and several hundred pounds worth of tools were stolen from a garage in Sandpiper Close.

DEBRA FOX

The bike was a yellow and black Suzuki RMZ 250.

Another bike, a man's black, white and red Trek Series 1 road bike, was stolen from a shed in Chainey Pieces, and a Woodfield petrol strimmer was taken from a shed in Burton End between Thursday of last week, and Sunday.

At a meeting of Haverhill Town Council last week, Colin Poole, town clerk, updated councillors and the public on crime figures for the town.

A report from Inspector Peter Ferrie, policing commander for Haverhill, revealed that crime for 2014 so far is lower than the three year average.

There have been 1,106 crimes in Haverhill town since April 1 this year. The three year average is 1,156.

Burglary of other buildings has decreased overall – while burglary of dwellings is one of the crimes on the rise.

Officers are urging the public to lock their buildings with close-shackle padlocks, if possible, and also install a shed alarm.

Tools and bikes should be marked with a postcode and business name, if applicable, and also with a forensic marking solution or etching.

Item serial numbers can also be recorded on immobilise.com as an additional safety measure for residents.

If you have any information contact Haverhill Police on 101.

You can also call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555111.

■ The Haverhill Safer Neighbourhood Team will hold its next meeting on Monday at Haverhill Arts Centre from 7pm. See story on page 2.

MP wishes Sarand a happy 20th birthday

CELEBRATION: Matthew Hancock MP, centre, with Andy and Sarah Howard

A SOFTWARE company set up by a husband and wife team has turned 20. Sarand, which operates from Chauntry Mills, Haverhill, was founded by Sarah and Andy Howard in 1994 - days after their wedding.

Twenty years on, the couple are celebrating success after securing work with Ford of Europe, Clifford Thames, York University and Addenbrooke's Hospital. Sarand specialises in providing bespoke software to a wide range of industries.

Mr Howard said: "I think what has made us successful is that, as an IT company, we have been able to adapt to the changes in our industry over the last 20 years and our vision from day one was to provide software that does what our clients want and not what the software dictates and is very straightforward to use."

A celebratory reception was held last week with Matthew Hancock MP amongst the guests.

Policing meeting to take on new style

QUARTERLY meetings held to vote for new policing priorities will take on a new style next week.

Haverhill's next Safer Neighbourhood Team (SNT) meeting is set for Monday - and for the first time, suggestions will not be taken in the room.

In a new move, the team decided that all suggestions for priorities should be received ahead of time, meaning nine priorities will be revealed to the public on the night for their votes.

Three will be taken forward until the next meeting, in March of next year. The deadline for this quarter's submissions was Monday.

The meeting, which starts at 7pm, will begin with a statement on general crime in Haverhill town by Inspector Peter Ferrie, the policing commander.

Visitors will also hear about how the most recent priorities, selected at the previous meeting, have been tackled.

In September, members of the public voted for officers to target drug use and dealing on the Parkway Estate, reduce criminal damage and anti-social behaviour in Strasbourg Square and tackle anti-social behaviour involving cars and mopeds.

Both those in attendance and those watching online will be invited to cast their votes. The results will be revealed live.

To watch online and take part in the live vote visit haverhillvote.co.uk.

You can also go to onesuffolk.co.uk/SaferSuffolk for more about the SNT.

Two youths sought after series of wheelie bin fires

TWO young people are being sought by police in connection with a spate of wheelie bin fires.

The arson attacks have taken place in bins across the Clements and Parkway Estates in town.

On November 20, a bin was set on fire in Lord's Croft Lane between 2pm and 2.15pm.

On November 25 a bin in Bute Court was targeted at around 4.30pm and the next day a bin in Wentworth Terrace was struck.

This happened at 9.38pm.

One of the youths being sought by police is described as a white male, aged between 12 and 14. He is said to be 5ft 2in tall and has dark hair.

He has been seen wearing a black hooded top.

The second youth is a white male of the same age and around 5ft tall. He has dark hair and wore a grey hooded top.

Contact Haverhill Police on 101 or call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555111.

New health guide out before Christmas

A NEW health guide detailing Haverhill's health services will be published before Christmas.

The guide, first published by West Suffolk Clinical Commissioning Group last year, detailed opening hours of health centres, surgeries, dentists and pharmacies - as well as telling exactly which services were available where.

It has since been edited, and the new version will be distributed to surgeries, council offices and other outlets before Christmas.

The original guides were delivered to Haverhill homes - but residents can request copies from the CCG.

Similar guides are being delivered to Brandon, Newmarket, Mildenhall and Sudbury.

Parking is free after 3pm in the run-up to Christmas

DEBRA FOX

THERE was some good news for Christmas shoppers in Haverhill announced this week.

Car parks at Ehringshausen Way, Lower Down Slade, Haverhill Arts Centre, Haverhill Leisure Centre and Meadows will be free after 3pm from December 12, up until Christmas Eve.

St Edmundsbury Borough Council is testing out the pilot scheme to assist local people and retailers alike at the busiest shopping time of the year.

The move will assist shoppers in supporting local retailers, and boost Haverhill's economy, Cllr Alaric Pugh, cabinet member for economic growth, said.

"We are keen to support retailers at this busy time of year," he added.

"We want people to shop locally and support trade in their town, rather than spending all of their money elsewhere."

An existing "free after 3" scheme currently operates in the town every Friday – but this new pilot will be in force each day of the week.

The car parks covered by the scheme charge 40p for an hour, £1 for three hours and either £2 or £2.20 for all day.

Charges are in force from Monday to Saturday between 8am and 6pm.

The move has been welcomed by Haverhill Chamber of Commerce, with Paul Donno, chairman, looking forward to a "St Edmundsbury Christmas".

Mr Donno, who owns 1 Accounts Online, said: "St Edmundsbury is showing its support to local trade by running the pilot scheme – what we need now is the people of Haverhill and the surrounding villages to take full advantage of it, to back the town's shops and businesses, to put cash into the tills so that we can all have a very merry Christmas."

Cllr Roger André, town mayor, welcomed the new deal which he says makes it easier for local residents to shop.

The move also allows shoppers to browse at a leisurely pace, and not panic about running out of time in the car park, the mayor said.

He added: "Let's face it, it isn't realistic to drive to Bury or Cambridge after school, but now you can pick up the children and come into town any afternoon, shop 'til you drop and still be home by 5pm."

Retailers in Haverhill Town Centre will trade late tomorrow as part of the annual Family Christmas night. Some stores will be open until 8pm.

Visit stedmundsbury.gov.uk for more.

Councillor: help shop locally this Christmas

A CAMPAIGN honouring small businesses is taking place this week-end.

Cllr Alaric Pugh, St Edmundsbury Borough Council's cabinet member for economic growth, is pleading with local people to buy in their local communities and give shops a boost.

Small Business Saturday will be celebrated on December 6.

Cllr Pugh said: "None of us like to see an empty shop – and although St Edmundsbury works hard to support trade, it is down to each of us individually to support our retailers and other local businesses."

Each small business needs support to thrive, the councillor added.

The borough and its partner council, Forest Heath District, also run a grants scheme available to new businesses or those within their first year.

This money is administered through Menta.

Patsy May flies in to light up the town tomorrow

FIREWORKS, crafts and a Britain's Got Talent superstar will help Haverhill get ready for Christmas tomorrow.

The annual Family Christmas Night, lights switch on, late night shopping and Grand Fireworks Display will well and truly get the town into the festive spirit.

Patsy May, New York diva and superstar will fly in as the night's special guest and turn on Haverhill's sparkle at 6.30pm.

Primary school children will see their hard work in lights, with a number of this year's new decorations designed by local schools.

Faithground rides, charity stalls and entertainers will line Queen Street and the High Street to get guests in the mood for fun.

A Christmas craft fair is also taking place at the Arts Centre as an extra treat. It's on from 5.30pm until 8.15pm.

On Saturday, ice skating will come to the Market Square between 10am and 4pm.

All of the events are free, but donations to Haverhill Town Council's collection buckets will be welcome.

STAR OF THE SHOW: Patsy May

Road closures are taking place on Friday for the night's activities:

High Street, closed from 1.00pm – 11.00pm
Queen Street, closed from 10.00am – 11.00pm
Swan Lane, closed from 1.00pm – 11.00pm
Peas Hill, closed from 1.00pm – 11.00pm
Camps Road, closed from 7.00pm – 9.00pm
Chauntry Road, closed from 7.00pm – 9.00pm
Mill Road, closed from 7.00pm – 9.00pm
Recreation Road, closed from 7.30pm – 9.00pm.

Christmas crackdown launched on drink drivers

MOTORISTS are being urged to report those driving under the influence of drink and drugs.

Suffolk and Norfolk Police forces have launched their Christmas drink drive campaign in a bid to catch irresponsible drivers who "dice with death".

The campaign launched on Monday and will run until January 1.

Officers will carry out additional patrols and breathalyse any driver who is stopped through concern over their manner of driving.

Those with a vehicle defect or anyone involved in a collision will also be breathalysed.

Chief Inspector Chris Spinks, head of the Roads Policing Unit in both counties, said: "Attitudes towards drink driving have changed tremendously over the years however there remains a hardcore minority of people who still feel this behaviour is acceptable and are risking their life and those of others."

"If you know someone who is drink driving I would urge you to contact police or call Crimestoppers where information can be passed anonymously."

"This call could save a life." You can call Crimestoppers on 0800 555111 or dial 101.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Owls WI celebrates fun months

ONE of Haverhill's WI groups is celebrating its recent meetings.

The Owls WI were entertained by Malcolm Busby at their October meeting. Mr Busby gave a chilling talk on ghosts.

In November, Jane Coe showed members how to arrange flowers for the Christmas celebration – and turned the evening into a fun one for all.

The group will celebrate Christmas at their next meeting later this month. They will meet at Haverhill Golf Club.

Choral society ready for carols

HAVERHILL Choral Society is holding its annual carol concert next week.

The group is inviting the public to enjoy an evening of Christmas music at Haverhill Methodist Church on December 13.

Tickets cost £6, and the price includes a buffet supper.

Buy your ticket on the door and enjoy the entertainment from 7.30pm.

Internships at Suffolk Councils

PLACEMENTS are available across Suffolk Councils.

An information session is being held at Endeavour House, Ipswich, on December 22 between 11am and 1pm.

Guests can find out more about internship applications, meet council members and hear about the internship experience.

Children put on their creative hats

DEBRA FOX

AN AUTHOR and illustrator inspired children to get creative with a range of workshops.

James Campbell, writer of the Boyface books, and illustrator Mark Weighton, visited Haverhill Library last week for four entertaining sessions.

Three workshops were held for local primary schools, and one was left open for the public.

Suitable for children over 6, the workshops focused on inspiring reading, writing and drawing.

Sanphra Willmott, manager, said: "The aim of these workshops is to encourage and inspire a love of creativity, reading, writing, drawing – in a fun and humorous way, within the library setting."

Cllr Tim Marks, who represents Haverhill North on St Edmundsbury Borough Council, donated £200 from his locality budget to the events.

They were also supported by Haverhill Town Council.

Cancer doctor jailed for 22 years

A FORMER children's doctor, who pleaded guilty to abusing 18 boys in his care, has been jailed for 22 years.

Dr Myles Bradbury was sentenced at Cambridge Crown Court on Monday.

Bradbury, 41, from Herringwell, worked as a paediatric consultant haematologist at Addenbrooke's Hospital. He pleaded guilty to 25 offences including sexual assault, voyeurism and possessing more than 16,000 indecent images.

Sentencing him, Judge Gareth Hawkesworth said: "These boys were all vulnerable and gravely ill."

"In all my years on the bench, I have never come across such a grotesque betrayal of your Hippocratic Oath."

"There are almost too many aggravating factors to list in your prolonged carefully, planned and cruel abuse."

"It is implicit in what you did for your own sexual gratification that you were targeting the most vulnerable, sick children."

Bradbury took pictures using a "spy pen" and also carried out unnecessary examinations on boys for his own pleasure.

Logo launch for academy's new member school

DEBRA FOX

A PRIMARY school will start 2015 with new academy status.

Coupals Primary School will officially become an academy on January 1 – with pupils starting the new term on the sixth of the month.

Part of the school's conversion has led to the design of a new logo, which was published on the school's website last week.

Parents, governors and staff voted for their favourite of two designs – with the winner taking an additional 80 votes.

David Maguire, acting headteacher, welcomed the new chapter for the school, which is joining the Samuel Ward Academy Trust.

He said: "It is a modern logo for a modern school without losing sight of the history of our school and its location."

"We wanted to involve the families, governors and staff in the process to help everyone in the school play their part in defining the face of our new school when it reopens as an academy in January.

"As part of our academy conversion every child will receive a new jumper or cardigan with the new logo on ready for the first day of the new term."

The logo includes the school's new name, Coupals Primary Academy, but keeps the symbol of corn, from the old badge.

The corn tells the history of the school, Mr Maguire added, as it was built on the old Coupals Farm.

Next, the school will get new branding to match the logo with "everything on track" for the opening in January.

Coupals' vision as an academy will soon be shared with parents, via the school's website.

As previously reported, the school was rated inadequate at its last Ofsted inspection in May.

Samuel Ward, rated outstanding by Ofsted, has adopted other schools and led them to a "rapid improvement", Mr Maguire added.

Speaking in September, Howard Lay, executive principal of the Trust, said the partnership "made sense".

Westfield Primary Academy and Churchill Special Free School are already part of the partnership.

Will you apply and Raise the Bar?

THE race is on for local community groups to get their applications in for funding from Raising the Bar.

The fund is designed to provide grants to projects which are led by organisations that aren't schools – including charities and social enterprises.

The Raising the Bar fund aims to encourage organisations to work with schools to focus on "addressing the needs of the local areas" and ensuring every child "reaches their potential".

For more information, go to suffolkcf.org.uk. Maximum funding is £5,000.

Do you think it's easy being green?

SUFFOLK'S greenest residents, business, schools and projects are being sought for an upcoming awards ceremony.

Creating the Greenest County Awards were launched last week and aim to highlight environmental achievements carried out by Suffolk's people.

There are 13 categories available for entry, including Green Travel, Greenest Building and Local Food and Drink.

Deadline for nominations is January 31 next year. The awards will be held in April.

Where's our slice of the cake gone?

There seems to be some oversight in the recent press release by the government re East of England road improvements. Surely they cannot have forgotten the A1307 and the need to improve the transport links of our large and growing Suffolk town? I've looked, all the Haverhill UKIP councillors have looked and the Suffolk County Council Knowledge Centre researchers have looked to no avail. Does anyone know where our slice of the cake has gone?

Soul night raises £700 for maternity hospital

A NIGHT full of live music has raised more than £700 for maternity care.

The charity soul night, organised by Paul Trinder and Cllr Paul Firman, was held at Haverhill Arts Centre on November 8.

Funk Odyssey performed live on the night.

A total of £740 was raised and the money will be donated to the Rosie Maternity Hospital in Cambridge.

The men have held a series of similar events over previous years, Cllr Firman said, with other acts including The Real Thing and the Small Fakers.

To date, they have raised an estimated £5,000 for local organisations.

Cllr Firman said: "Once again the Arts Centre had a massive boost to their bar takings with a sell-out event, and £740 was raised for a great cause."

New canopy for pre-school

A BRIGHT and colourful canopy has been installed at a Haverhill pre-school.

Little Wonders Pre-school Parkway has welcomed the new addition to their building, after the old canopy was damaged in February's fierce weather.

Kellie Nunn, manager, said the new canopy allows the children to play outside in all weathers.

She said: "We now also have a mud kitchen in the garden for the children to play with and have been fundraising to raise funds for protective clothing for the children to save their clothes from the mud."

Staff recently held a quiz night and raffle, which raised £100. The events were supported by Tesco, Cineworld and Ridgesons.

Hospice centre celebrates scooping top prize of £50k on People's Millions

■ DEBRA FOX

A CHARITY'S wish to create a tranquil community garden has been granted.

St Nicholas Hospice Care has been celebrating winning the People's Millions – a competition which saw them compete with a dementia awareness project in Norfolk to win £50,000.

The hospice plans to use the money to create a landscaped space for patients, their families and local people at their Haverhill outreach centre, in Camps Road.

Named the Garden of Life project, Mandy Wilson, Burton Centre manager, is already encouraging the public to get involved and "take ownership" of the garden.

She said: "I know a lot of community groups have been coming down and everyone is keen to be a part of it, and use it." The charity has already contacted a garden designer to discuss how best to use the space, she added.

Although there is no timeline in place for the project, St Nicholas Hospice Care is appealing for volunteers to share their views on how they think the garden should look.

The charity, which opened its outreach centre in Haverhill in May, always hoped to have a garden – but was dependent on money coming in.

As well as being a place for patients and their families, the Garden of Life will also provide an open space for the public to enjoy.

The space leads to the Haven Cafe, which is inside the centre. Guests will be able to enjoy refreshments outdoors in the warmer months.

It is also the charity's hope to start a bereavement support group through gardening.

The hospice took part in the People's Millions last Wednesday, with people picking up the phone to vote between 9am and midnight.

They were announced as the winners last Thursday afternoon, and presented with a cheque at the main hospice site in Bury St Edmunds.

If you would like to volunteer, visit the Burton Centre between 9am and 5pm on weekdays.

You can also call the centre on 01440 848260.

Town pastors at hand for advent advice

A GROUP of volunteers will be on hand this season to ensure everyone has a safe Christmas and New Year.

Haverhill Town Pastors, who man the town's streets on Friday evenings and Saturday mornings to ensure party goers stay safe on nights out, have started an advent calendar of safety advice.

The group, who will also be attending special events throughout the festive period, including the Family Christmas Night tomorrow, will be sharing their wisdom over social media.

Tips will include staying with friends on nights out, keeping warm in the cold and wearing sensible shoes.

Captain Andrew Payne is the pastors co-ordinator.

He said: "Our goal is to ensure that people can have a safe night out in Haverhill and that is why we volunteer to be on the streets."

"However, our role expands beyond merely those evenings we're able to get out, and that's why we're offering this advice through advent."

Like Haverhill Town Pastors on Facebook or follow @HPastors on Twitter to stay up to date with safety tips.

In Memoriam

WESTROPE Lee

BA (Hons), MA, MScRes, MPhil.
Tragically taken from his family in a road accident.
Sunday, 8th December, 2013.
Aged 42 Years.

If we could have a lifetime wish,
And one dream that could come true,
We would pray to God with all our hearts,
Just to see and speak to you.
A thousand words won't bring you back,
We know because we've tried,
And neither will a million tears,
We know because we've cried.
You've left behind our broken hearts,
And precious memories too,
But we've never wanted memories,
We only wanted you.

Lee, we all miss you so very much.

Love you always,
Mum, Dad, Bother Dean,
Julie, Ben and Harry.

Decision time for Tesco plan

DEBRA FOX

A SUPERMARKET'S plans to start deliveries at 5am will be discussed by councillors today.

Haverhill's Tesco store, on Cangle Road, has applied for the permission on a temporary basis, lasting for 12 months.

If approved, deliveries would start at this time every day, including Sundays.

Town councillors objected to the plan earlier this year and those living nearby the shop have complained about the noise they already have to deal with.

One resident, from Lord's Croft Lane, said: "Currently, living in this property, I have high levels of noise out the front of the house from traffic."

"I already experience a lot of noise from Tesco car park."

"This is in the evenings from cars racing around the car park and more importantly the bottle banks wake me up with the noise early in the morning."

Other complaints have come from those living in Yeldham Place and Withersfield Road.

Some have raised concerns about the noise from the supermarket's generator, which they say goes on until midnight, and the noise from delivery lorries passing through.

Environmental Health and Suffolk County Council Highways have not objected – but a number of measures have been proposed by St Edmundsbury Borough Council to control any impact on local people.

These include only allowing a maximum of two deliveries between 5am and 7am from Monday to Saturday and 5am and 8am on Sundays, switching off door alarms prior to opening and not reloading roll cages before 7am and after 10pm.

This application has been recommended for approval by officers.

In October, the store was given permission to build three pods in its car park. They will house a hand car wash, an Avis and a Halfords.

A further application, for more retail pods inside the shop entrance, was withdrawn by the company.

St Edmundsbury Borough Council's Development Control Committee meeting is taking place today from 10am.

Appeal after schoolgirls approached by two men

POLICE issued an appeal after schoolgirls were approached by two men.

The incident took place on November 25, at 4.50pm, in Haverhill's Chalkstone Way.

The girls, aged 11, walked out of the Motts Field play area onto the street when they were approached by the men, who asked their names and how old they were.

One of the men then put an arm around each girl. The youngsters then fled down Coupsals Road, and along an alley towards Jay Close.

The men appeared at the top of the alley, but made no further attempt to speak to or approach the girls.

The man who put his arm around the girls is white, around 5ft 8in tall and wore dark clothes.

The second man is black, also around 5ft 8in tall. He wore dark clothing and a red T-shirt showing the minion from the film Despicable Me.

HARD WORK: Barbara Gale receives the Innovation in Volunteering Award from Lord Howard, Hospice UK chairman.

Good neighbour scheme wins award

A VOLUNTEER scheme has won an award.

St Nicholas Hospice Care's Hospice Neighbours service has taken home the Hospice UK and National Garden Scheme Innovation in Volunteering Award.

Barbara Gale, chief executive, collected the award on behalf of the charity.

She said: "Since its launch nearly four years ago, the service has continually grown and has enabled us to support more people in their own homes.

"It is a fantastic way of helping to connect communities and reverting back to neighbours helping neighbours, which we believe not only helps people when they need it most but makes the world a nicer place to live in."

Men jailed for string of burglaries

THREE men involved in burgling nearly 60 homes across three counties have been jailed.

The trio used homemade tools to smash open windows and patio doors at properties including addresses in Jay Close and Redshank Close in Haverhill.

Traian Vasiluta, 22, Mihai Gherghinesco, 33, and Adrian Budurcoiu, 21, all of Ipswich, pleaded guilty to conspiracy to burgle.

Ipswich Crown Court heard on Friday how police were able to link 15 raids at addresses in Suffolk through distinctive footprints from trainers left at the scene and the way the homes had been broken into.

The burglars also helped police link them to the scene of some of their crimes by taking photos of each other on mobile phones.

Shauna Ritche, prosecuting, said other raids in Norfolk and Cambridgeshire brought the value of goods stolen to £125,000.

Jewellery, cameras, computer

COURT REPORTER

equipment and household items were taken.

Gherghinesco was arrested on May 30, close to the Cambridgeshire police HQ. He had one of the window smashing tools hanging around his neck and stolen items were found in his vehicle.

Vasiluta was detained on June 14 in Foxhall Road, Ipswich, when police stopped a car and found he too had one of the window tools and a number of stolen items.

Miss Ritchie said a search at a property where the three men were living revealed a large quantity of stolen items in a hidden room in the attic.

Gherghinesco admitted involvement in 17 burglaries, and Vasiluta admitted 38. Both were jailed for seven years and four months.

Budurcoiu, who admitted involvement in four burglaries, was sentenced to five years and four months.

STAY SAFE: Millions go online for shopping.

PCC warns 'stay safe'

SHOPPING crazes like Black Friday and Cyber Monday have prompted a warning about online buying.

Tim Passmore, Police and Crime Commissioner for Suffolk, has warned residents across the county to beware of fake websites and scam emails.

Last weekend was the busiest for internet shopping throughout the whole year, the police and crime commissioner revealed.

Mr Passmore said: "It's a shocking statistic but, according to the National Fraud Intelligence Bureau, more than half of Britons have been victims of an online crime.

"Last year in the UK, Christmas shoppers made an estimated 115 million visits to online retail sites on the first Monday in December.

"That is a mind-blowing figure and with that many online transactions the potential for crime is very likely."

Christmas services for St Mary's

A CALENDAR of Christmas events for parishioners and guests has been announced.

St Mary the Virgin Church, in Haverhill town centre, will host a number of masses and other seasonal events over the coming weeks.

A Haverhill parish carol service is set for December 17 from 7pm, while a carol service for Withersfield Village will take place on December 21 from 3pm.

The church has teamed up with St Nicholas Hospice Care to hold a 'Light Up A Life' service on December 20 from 3pm.

A crib service is scheduled for Christmas Eve from 5pm, but guests are being reminded to arrive at 4.45pm dressed up if they want to take part.

Midnight mass will start at 11.30pm on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day services are taking place at 10am and 11.15am for Withersfield Village.

Services on January 4 include an epiphany celebration at 9.30am and messy church at 11am.

Everyone is welcome to attend. For more information, contact (01440) 762871.

Keep your sneezes to yourself

SUFFOLK GPs are calling for residents to keep their germs to themselves this winter.

Doctors are reminding people how to reduce the spread of germs by practising good cold etiquette during the icy months.

If you're suffering from a runny nose, sore throat or cough make sure you use a tissue to cover your nose and mouth, and throw the tissue away as soon as possible, the county's GPs have said.

Always wash your hands afterwards with hot water and soap, or an antibacterial hand gel.

Dr Christopher Browning, GP and chairman of West Suffolk Clinical Commissioning Group, said: "Research has suggested that one unprotected sneeze in a busy area, could lead to 150 people developing a cold, with the germs being passed on via escalator handles or seats.

"If you sit next to someone at work who doesn't practice good cold etiquette, don't be embarrassed to tell them to keep it covered. You could be saving yourself and your colleagues the unpleasantness of a cold."

Boost for police officers on A14

INNOVATIVE equipment which will assist officers in looking at drivers' records has been donated to Suffolk police.

The mobile tachograph analysis equipment, which will identify offences and analyse records while on the road, has been donated by Eastern Region Truckwatch.

It will be used in a four-wheel drive which forms part of the roads policing fleet on the A14.

Tim Passmore, Suffolk's Police and Crime Commissioner, accepted a £2,000 cheque from Truckwatch for the equipment.

He said: "The A14 is a major artery of national and international significance.

"It is the main link to Felixstowe Docks, the largest container port in the country and plays a hugely important role in the economic success in the county.

"Being able to provide a quicker response to driver's hours offences will help the constabulary to keep the road safer both for hauliers and the public."

DOWNING STREET: Jacob Simmons, Matthew Hancock MP and Georgia Neill.

Students shadow MP for the day

SIXTH form students have visited Downing Street to shadow their MP.

Jacob Simmons, of Samuel Ward Academy and Georgia Neill, of Newmarket Academy, joined Matthew Hancock, MP for West Suffolk, in London.

The pupils visited the Department of Business, Innovation and Skills and the House of Commons before speaking to members of Mr Hancock's team.

Jacob said: "The day was incredibly interesting as I was allowed to see close up what I'd only ever seen on TV or read in the newspapers.

"The visit has furthered my interest in national politics and was an incredibly enjoyable experience."

Man spared jail after online sex chat with underage girl

A SELF-confessed sex offender has been spared custody after chatting online to a 15-year-old girl.

Tomas Oddy, 43, pleaded guilty to engaging in sexual activity in the presence of a child, and was sentenced at Ipswich Crown Court last week.

Oddy, of Bradley Road, Cowlinge, met the young girl, who called herself Millie, in a chat room last summer.

Despite learning she was 15, he carried on chatting with her, obtained her mobile number and sent her a string of "dirty messages".

Michael Crimp, prosecuting, told the court that Oddy watched as the young girl took her top off and showed her breasts.

COURT REPORTER

After one online chat where Millie believed Oddy was performing a sex act on himself, she informed the police.

The 43-year-old had no previous convictions, cooperated fully with police, and admitted his actions.

Edward Renvoize, mitigating, said that Oddy initially thought the girl was older, but had persisted despite discovering her true age.

He said: "This was an enormous lapse of judgement on the part of Mr Oddy.

"There is no suggestion that he has any particular interest in young girls.

"He made a series of very poor decisions which of course are criminal and he must face the consequences of this."

Judge David Goodin sentenced him to 12 months imprisonment, suspended for 18 months.

The judge also ordered that Oddy be under probation service supervision for 18 months, pay £250 in costs and sign onto the sexual offences register for the next 10 years.

He said: "I am satisfied that you meant her no ill and if you had been aware of the damage being caused by it then you wouldn't have engaged in the activity."

Christmas around the world

IN the UK the most popular Christmas dinner, since Victorian times at least, has involved a roast turkey or other poultry (geese, chickens and ducks are other popular choices) with all the trimmings – stuffing, cranberry sauce, bread sauce. The selection of vegetables and other side dishes can range from the love-them-or-hate-them brussels sprouts to the more conventional carrots and parsnips, not forgetting delicious roast potatoes. The meal is often rounded off with a traditional Christmas (or plum) pudding, served with brandy butter or cream. If there's room at the end of all this, mince pies or even trifle are also offered, not forgetting a chocolate-y yule log.

Around the world, Christmas traditions vary. Some countries focus their celebrations on Christmas Eve instead of December 25th. In Brazil, the pre-Christmas feast includes Couve a Mineira (garlic kale), luscious fruits, Brazil nuts and zesty rice, along with platters laden with ham and fresh salad. Austrians dine on fried carp, their famous Sacher Torte (an indulgently rich chocolate tart) and biscuits such as lebkuchen and sterne. Danes are partial to roast pork, complete with crackling, while Czechs prefer fish and potato salad on Christmas Eve. In Iceland dinner is served at 6pm on December

24, and will probably involve Hamborgahryggur – a kind of gammon steak, and even roast reindeer, ptarmigan and smoked lamb. If curry is your thing, you might want to think about celebrating yuletide in India. Biryani, mutton curries and sweets such as kheer are all on offer there. From the Philippines – where a queso de bola (literally a ball of cheese) is served up to accompany a cured leg of pork – to the Swedish Christmas smorgasbord, it seems that there are as many different Christmas culinary traditions as there are countries that celebrate it. Wherever you are on the day, and however you choose to mark the day, we wish you a very happy time!

Christmas Cornflake Wreaths

Baking is a great way to keep the kids occupied during the school holidays. This festive variation on the classic krispie cake will be sure to get them in the kitchen.

The easy recipe for 14 wreaths makes a fantastic gift idea for the grandparents or a favourite teacher, or just nibbled as a fun teatime treat. Let youngsters take turns to stir the mixture, and then gleefully lick the spoon!

Method:

1. Melt the butter in a large saucepan over a low heat, stirring frequently to ensure it doesn't burn.
2. Once the butter has melted, add the marshmallows and continue to stir until they have melted too. Add the food colouring gradually until the mix reaches the desired shade.
3. Empty the Corn Flakes into a large bowl, and pour over the melted marshmallows. Stir until the cereal is well coated.
4. Lay a sheet of grease proof paper over a baking tray and spoon on golf ball-sized mounds of the mixture. Allow a little space between each heap. Use a finger to hollow out the middle of each to form the ring shape.
5. Decorate with the miniature Smarties, and put in the fridge to set for at least 45 minutes.

You will need:

75g butter
565g miniature marshmallows
1 tsp green food colouring
180g Corn Flakes
Handful of miniature Smarties

Christmas film previews 2014

The Hobbit: Battle of Five Armies – Dec 12th

The third instalment of The Hobbit trilogy brings an epic conclusion to the journey of Bilbo Baggins and the Company of Dwarves, as they take on the ruthless dragon Smaug.

After taking back their homeland, the enraged dragon unleashes his rage on the defenceless Lake-town as Thorin becomes obsessed with hoarding his reclaimed treasure. As Thorin sacrifices his honour and his friends, Bilbo is forced to make a drastic choice after his desperate attempts at reason fail. But other dangers are lurking as Sauron sends legions of Orcs to attack the Lonely Mountain, forcing the Dwarves, Elves and Men to decide to unite or die. As the Battle of the Five Armies rages Bilbo must fight to save not only his own life, but the lives of his friends and all of Middle Earth.

Unbroken – Dec 25th

Angelina Jolie directs this epic drama that follows the incredible true story of Olympian and war hero Luis Zamperini. Zamperini survived in a life raft for 47 days after a plane crash during World War II, only to be captured by the Japanese Navy and sent to a prisoner of war camp.

Night at the Museum:

Secret of the Tomb – Dec 19th

Ben Stiller returns as watchman Larry as he travels the globe to save the magic of The Tablet of Ahkmenrah before it's disappears. Uniting characters old and new, Night at the Museum 3 stars Robin Williams, Ben Kingsley, Owen Wilson, Steve Coogan and Ricky Gervais in the museum's wildest adventure yet.

Dumb and Dumber To – Dec 19th

Jim Carey and Jeff Daniels are back as loveable idiots Lloyd and Harry twenty years on from their last adventure. After Lloyd reveals his long standing prank to Harry, the dim-witted duo head out to find Harry's long lost daughter as Lloyd falls in love again.

Exodus: Gods and Kings – Dec 26th

Ridley Scott adapts the Old Testament Book of Exodus in this epic adventure as one man dares to take on the strength of an entire empire. Leader Moses, played by Christian Bale, rises up against Egyptian Pharaoh Ramses and sets thousands of slaves on a journey to escape Egypt and its cycle of deadly plagues.

A Christmas Cocktail: Gingerbread and Apple Martini

With the nights drawing in, settling down with a glass of something festive is always comforting. Mulled wine and eggnog are traditional tipples, but this spiced cocktail offers a contemporary alternative. Stoke the fire, pop on a Christmas film, and settle in for the evening.

Method:

1. Edge the rim of a chilled martini glass with agave syrup, then through the biscuit crumbs so that they stick.
2. Pour all other ingredients bar the orange zest into a Boston glass and shake vigorously.
3. Strain the cocktail into a glass, and grate the orange zest on top to serve.

You will need:

55ml Domaine de Canton ginger liqueur
30ml vanilla vodka
70ml apple cider
Few drops of lemon juice
Orange zest
Agave syrup
Digestive biscuit crumbs

The Good Pub Guide

The Woolpack's popular themed fun

HUSBAND and wife team Adrian and Tracy Collingwood have now been running the popular Haverhill pub The Woolpack for 18 months.

The couple, who took over The Woolpack's reins in August 2013, have very much enjoyed welcoming customers to the pub during their time in charge. And the feeling has been mutual.

The Woolpack now has a long list of entertainments and amenities that have kept the punters flocking in. Not only does the pub offer superb homemade lunches six days a week (from Monday to Saturday), using only the best of local produce, but they are also available at an excellent price.

The Woolpack now also hosts their popular international cuisine night, every Wednesday, with a selection of exotic dishes on offer each week, and they also host a Free Food Evening.

Every weekend, you can get your dancing shoes on at The Woolpack, with their regular resident and guest DJs, and many great live bands each Friday and Saturday night – all from their state-of-the-art sound system. And if you think you've got "The Voice", why not have a go at one of the Open Mic evenings which run every other Thursday, alternating with the pub's fun Karaoke Nights on the other Thursdays.

Other regular evenings include a poker night each Monday, and quiz nights on some Sundays, with popular local host Lewis Jones, himself a star of several TV quiz shows, who is lined up to play host to the pub's Big Christmas Quiz on Sunday, December 21.

Or if sport is your thing, you will also be well looked after at The Woolpack. As well as their pool table, they are also brilliantly set up for sports spectators, with three large projector screens that will show all major sporting events, with Sky, BT Sport and now also At The Races and Race UK for horseracing fans.

There's even a screen out in the courtyard! There's also an outside bar, open on Saturday nights.

If you are throwing a party, the pub has a handy and spacious boothed area that will fit the bill for your hen, stag or birthday celebrations. And at this time of year, it is ideal for your Christmas party as well! Visit the pub at 50 Queens Street, Haverhill, CB9 9EF, call (01440) 707105, or find them on facebook at /WoolpackHaverhill.

Frank Skinner

the GUIDE

THE 57-year-old funny man from West Bromwich has extended his wildly successful Man In A Suit tour and added a Cambridge Corn Exchange date, luckily for us.

A classic observationalist, and an aged pro, this time around Frank Skinner is, um, wearing a suit, and seriously feeling his age.

The stand-up won the Perrier Award in 1991, and has since forged a career spouting close to the bone jokes and working repeatedly with fellow comedian David Baddiel on the likes of Fantasy Football League and the Three Lions single they released for Euro '96 (oh the tears).

More recently he's been in the news for sharing his feelings on the financial crash (he almost lost everything) and for giving a high profile interview to Jonathon Ross, baring all over being a "reckless alcoholic" who slept rough on occasion and led a – in his words – "strange life". He's been sober since 1986 though, and has appeared alongside Peter Capaldi in the new series of Doctor Who (we're not jealous, no, not at all!), so we believe it when we're told he's still on top of his game.

Time Out gave Man In A Suit four stars and said it "sees Skinner on fine form: warm, chatty and self-deprecating," – just how we like him. It's pricier than tuning in to his show on Absolute Radio on a Saturday morning, but still, it should be a right laugh.

Frank Skinner: Man In A Suit, Cambridge Corn Exchange, Friday, December 12, at 7.30pm. Tickets £30 from (01223) 357851 / cornex.co.uk.

■ Jimmy Carr: Funny Business, Cambridge Corn Exchange, Saturday, December 6, at 8pm. Tickets £25 from (01223) 357851 / cornex.co.uk.

Jimmy Carr

TO be honest, there isn't much more to add to our repeated pre-views of Jimmy Carr.

The man is here too often to write anything overly fresh about him.

It makes you worry that he won't have all that much to say for himself – that we haven't already heard, don't worry, we're fully aware how much he can blabber in his tightly controlled manner – once he's back up on that Cambridge Corn Exchange stage again.

He's clearly just rather fond of those worn, wooden treads (he was here in November too, don't blame us for just plagiarising ourselves, copying, pasting and reprinting this spiel).

Last autumn we tallied 25 Corn Exchange appearances, and now, the master of the one-liner and high-pitched honking laugh, returns once again with his latest show, Funny Business.

Expect many a manicured gag from the suited and booted 8 Out of 10 Cats host.

Famed for his dark humour, as well as his tax arrangements, the Gonville and Caius alumnus (hence his Cambridge addiction) says: "Come for the witty and incisive musings on the human condition; stay for the knob gags." Charming that is.

Rembrandt makes screen debut

DON'T fret if you think you'll struggle to get to The National Gallery to see the new Rembrandt exhibition.

The clever team behind documentary film, EXHIBITION ON SCREEN: Rembrandt from the National Gallery London and Rijksmuseum Amsterdam, has successfully embarked upon a mission to share Rembrandt's later masterpieces with those stationed outside London.

The idea is you skip a trip to the station, and grab a large popcorn instead, before settling in for a behind-the-scenes look at the exhibition featuring moments when it was being set up and curated, as well as a private, close up view of the show without the hustle and bustle of being there in person.

A spokesperson for EXHIBITION ON SCREEN said: "Rembrandt's creativity gathered new energy in the closing years of his life.

"It is the art of these late years – soulful, honest and deeply moving – that indelibly defines our image of Rembrandt the man and the artist.

"This landmark exhibition is a unique opportunity to experience the passion, emotion and innovation of Rembrandt."

Expect insights into how the artist composed and painted his pieces, how he developed his techniques and hear from experts and the show's talented curators Betsy Wieseman and Jonathan Bikker.

Director Phil Grabsky said: "Rembrandt is one of those artists frequently called an all-time great but to really understand the biography you need to look at the detail, to have someone explain what we're looking at and why it's significant, to really grasp why he's so revered.

"That is exactly what we do in these films." See the film at Cambridge Arts Picturehouse on Monday, December 8, at 6.30pm. Call 0871 9025720.

Christmas tips for trees

THE festive season for Christmas trees seems to have jumped a month, as retailers have now been selling real trees for several weeks to the public, despite advice from the British Christmas Tree Growers Association not to buy your tree earlier than December 1.

Homebase, B&Q and Asda have had trees in some of their stores for several weeks, while even John Lewis has started selling real trees online for the first time.

I personally remain unconvinced about buying a Christmas tree online as shapes do vary and there is limited scope for returning it if it's too wide, dense or simply doesn't fit the shape of your space.

But if you've already decked the halls with boughs of holly and put the baubles and tinsel on your Christmas tree, how are you going to stop it from looking like a dried-up old offering by December 25, with more needles on the floor than on the branches?

Well, if you are still looking for a cut real tree, make sure you saw around an inch off the base, which will open the pores of the tree, albeit temporarily.

by Hannah Stephenson

You need to plunge the tree butt in a bucket of water immediately after cutting it, so the tree can absorb moisture and the pores don't have a chance to close up again.

When the tree is brought indoors, mount it in a water-holding stand and place it away from direct heat, such as a radiator. Keep the container topped up with water every day; you will be surprised how much the tree drinks.

When buying your tree, Harry Brightwell, secretary of the British Christmas Tree Growers Association, advises: "A fresh tree will have a healthy green appearance with few browning needles.

"Needles should be flexible and not fall off if you run a branch through your hand. Raise the tree a few inches off the ground and drop it on the butt end. Very few green needles should drop off the tree but it is normal for a few inner brown needles to drop off."

Prices are likely to be much the same as last year. B&Q is charging £35 for a medium Nordmann fir (4ft 11in-6ft 6in) and £20 for a similar sized Norway spruce, while from Homebase a 5ft-6ft cut Nordmann fir is £35 and a similar sized Fraser fir is £30.

About 80% of the trees sold are Nordmann fir, around 10-15% Norway spruce, and the remainder are lesser known varieties including the Fraser fir.

Gardeners may opt for container-grown trees, grown in pots from seedling stage, which are able to develop a good root system and can be planted in the garden afterwards. However, beware of similar-sounding 'containerised' trees, warns Which? Gardening, the Consumers' Association magazine. These trees are grown in a field then dug up and put into a pot just before sale. They often lose a lot of roots in the process and looked dull and lifeless at the end of a trial carried out by Which?

Those keeping a container-grown tree should:

■ Keep it in the house for no more than two weeks. If necessary, you can keep your tree in a sheltered spot outside until you're ready to bring it in.

■ Put a saucer under the pot to protect your furniture/floor, or place the pot inside another one without drainage holes.

■ Choose a cool spot, away from radiators and fires, to prevent the tree from overheating. It should have some natural daylight.

■ Water regularly and don't let it dry out – but don't leave it sitting in water.

■ To keep the tree growing after the festive season, put it outside initially in a sheltered spot, covering it with horticultural fleece if hard frost is forecast.

■ Repot the tree every few years when its roots outgrow the container.

■ The full report on potted Christmas trees can be found in the December issue of Which? Gardening. For more information, visit www.which.co.uk/signup

■ Neil Sands makes a welcome return with a new 2014 production of the country's most popular Christmas nostalgia show REMEMBER WHEN AT CHRISTMAS on Thursday December 4 at 11am.

This enchanting show, now in its 8th year, is a wonderful mixture of great songs, stunning costumes and festive fun. With festive refreshments included in the price this is a Christmas treat you can't afford to miss!

■ Looking for a chance to do some Christmas shopping for things you won't find in the shops? Then look no further, the annual CHRISTMAS CRAFT FAIR is taking place on Friday December 5 from 5pm – 8pm and Saturday December 6 from 9.30am to 4pm.

■ On your marks, get set, go ... The Christmas Craft Fair is part of the Family Christmas Celebrations run by Haverhill Town Council. On Friday there will also be Late Night Shopping in the High Street and Queen Street (8.30pm – 8.00pm), the Christmas Lights Switch-on with Patsy May from Britain's Got Talent in the Market Square (6.30pm) and a free Fireworks Display at the Recreation Ground at 8.00pm. On Saturday there will be free ice skating on the Market Square.

CELEBRATION TIME: The Family Christmas Celebrations are taking place tomorrow. Last year's fireworks, above. Picture: Tudor Morgan-Owen.

■ On the cinema front Rhys Ifans, Bradley Cooper and Jennifer Lawrence star in SERENA (15) on Tuesday December 9 at 7.30pm. Based on the hit novel by Ron Rash, it is depression era North Carolina, and newlyweds George and Serena Pemberton tenaciously build up a timber empire, Serena proving equal to her husband in her ruthlessness but it all unravels when Serena learns that she can't bear George any children and then discovers that he sired an illegitimate son before they married.

■ With complimentary seasonal refreshments, join us and George Bailey, Clarence Odbody and the folk of Bedford Falls, for a classic Christmas treat on Friday December 12 when we are showing Frank Capra's 1946 film, IT'S A WONDERFUL LIFE (U) at 7.30pm.

THERE will only be a few hundred and they will not be cheap, but Japanese car giant Toyota is about to take its first small step into the unproven market for emissions-free, hydrogen-powered vehicles, writes Matt Joy or PA News.

The world's largest car maker will begin selling fuel cell cars in Japan on December 15 and in the US and Europe in mid-2015. The sporty-looking, four-door Toyota Mirai will sell for 6.7 million yen (£36,700) before tax. Toyota hopes to sell 400 in Japan and 300 in the rest of the world in the first year.

"In time, the fuel cell vehicle will become mainstream. We wanted to take the first step," said Mitsuhiro Kato, a Toyota executive vice president, at the vehicle's launch. "We want to be at the leading edge."

Fuel cell vehicles run on compressed hydrogen gas, which in the Mirai's case is stored in two tanks mounted underneath the vehicle. They emit no exhaust, though fossil fuels are used in the production of hydrogen, and to pressurise it.

Both Honda and Hyundai are also experimenting with limited sales and leases of fuel cell cars. Honda showed a fuel cell concept car yesterday.

Besides the relatively high cost, buyers will have to contend with finding fuel. Only a few dozen hydrogen filling stations have been built worldwide, though governments are subsidising the construction of more.

It is an uncertain future that both depends on whether makers can bring down the price, and whether a wide-enough network of filling stations will be built.

Yoshikazu Tanaka, deputy chief engineer for Toyota's next-generation vehicle development, said he expects it will take 10-20 years for the Mirai to reach sales in the tens of thousands of vehicles a year.

Asked if it was a risk, he agreed, but Toyota views it as a challenge. Likening it to a chicken and egg situation, he said if you say it is too risky and do not move forward with production, the number of filling stations will never grow. Toyota faced a similar scenario with its Prius petrol-electric hybrid, which now sells in big numbers.

"It was a big challenge when we first introduced the Prius, or hybrid car, in 1997," Tanaka said. "And it's an even bigger challenge this time because there is no infrastructure, and we're trying to lead the commercialisation of fuel cell cars."

Hoping to offset the inconvenience of finding fuel, Toyota gave the car a futuristic look inside and out (Mirai means future in Japanese) and made it peppy to try to attract buyers. It accelerates particularly quickly from about 25 to 45mph, Tanaka added.

The Japanese government also plans to offer a two million yen subsidy to buyers of fuel cell cars, reducing the effective price to 4.7 million yen (£25,700).

Sales will be limited to the primarily urban areas that have fuelling stations. In Japan, with about 30 stations, that means the regions around Tokyo, Osaka and Nagoya cities in central and western Japan and the northern

Cambridge Volvo wants safer roads as winter sets in

WITH the Met Office predicting stronger winds and heavier rainfall than usual over their three-month forecast, Newmarket Road-based Volvo dealership Marshall Cambridge is offering advice to local Cambridge motorists to encourage safer driving in cold and wet conditions when making any trips this autumn.

Britain's roads become dramatically different to drive on during the darker hours and with changeable weather conditions common in UK climates, drivers need to plan and prepare before undertaking any journey, no matter how brief.

"Making sure everything is functioning as it should before you set off is incredibly important, and knowing a few pointers can lead to a much smoother and less stressful journey", comments Martin Bryan at Marshall Cambridge. "In cold, wet and dark conditions, clear visibility and vision is paramount. At our dealership, we advise all of our customers to undertake these preparations" adds Bryan.

■ Over time, your headlights can cloud over due to the dirt and debris they come in contact with. Ensuring you wipe down all of the lenses around the vehicle will keep them clean; making sure your lights can shine at their fullest capacity. Some soapy water will wash away any dirt or marks that have built up or keep a pack of baby wipes in your car in case of build up whilst you're out driving in adverse conditions.

■ The same goes for the vehicles windscreen, clean it both inside and out to improve visibility, especially when there is glare from the winter sun. Wiper blades are essential when driving in the rain and for clearing away any dirt from windscreens; if these aren't functioning properly a driver's vision will be seriously compromised. Check the rubber is still intact with the plastic framing of the blade and they are effectively clearing the windscreen – replacing them if necessary.

■ When temperatures start to drop outside, some of the liquid components in a vehicle will too. Likewise to antifreeze in your engine coolant, investing in a couple of pounds to treat windscreen washer fluid with a suitable additive will also reduce to chance of it freezing. However, using normal engine antifreeze can damage paintwork so don't be tempted to mix this your washer fluid.

■ Dark mornings and evenings means it can be difficult to check your tyres so complete this task during daylight hours and make sure they are in a safe condition. For wet and wintery conditions, it's recommended that there is at least 3mm of tread but nothing under 2mm as this can seriously reduce handling and stability.

AWESOME: The new Ford Mustang

Ford's latest Mustang sallies forth after top-of-the-world Dubai caper

BOSSES of the Ford motor company could be forgiven for having that top-of-the-world feeling this week.

They have been able to show off their new yellow-coloured Mustang model – on the 112th floor of the world's tallest building, the Burj Khalifa in Dubai.

A team of six engineers travelled with the special Mustang from Ford's world headquarters in Dearborn, Michigan, in the United States, to Dubai aboard an Emirates Airlines flight.

Once the car arrived in Dubai, it was transported to the base of Burj Khalifa and carefully separated into six sections that could be transported to the 112th level via the building's lifts. The team re-assembled the vehicle over approximately 12 hours.

The re-assembling was complete when Ford executive chairman Bill Ford placed the pony badge on the Mustang on the 112th floor.

At the ceremony in Dubai Mr Ford recalled how, in 1965, the company had placed a 1965 Mustang Convertible atop what was then the world's tallest building – the Empire State Building in New York.

Widening Participation Officer

Salary Band 5 £21,478- £27,901 per annum pro rata
0.8 FTE - 30 hours/4 days per week
Fixed term for 18 months

Closing Date: 30th December 2014

Interview Date: 12/13th January 2015

Would you like to be the lead in a unique development opportunity in the Cambridge and Peterborough region?

Health Education East of England is working jointly with local NHS Trusts to include Acute, Community and Mental Health and Social Services within the County Council on a new project. This fantastic opportunity provides:

- Opportunities for people to start their career in a support role
- Support to people to be the best they can be in the job they do
- Opportunities for career progression, including into registered professions

You will act as the first point of contact to provide expert advice and guidance for those wishing to participate in these schemes. You will be the key person within an organisation who will engage with its managers and with external partners such as local colleges, Job Centre Plus and The Princes Trust.

The post will also provide support to apprentices and external stakeholders within the work place with an aim to maintain success rates and endeavour to maximise employability at the end of apprenticeship programmes.

You will work closely with the project manager at Health Education East of England who will provide a clear direction of the schemes and assist in performance management for the project.

You will be educated to degree level in relevant subject or equivalent level of experience of working at a similar level in specialist area. You will have experience in pre-employment programmes, successful engagement activities, and supporting staff through learning and development opportunities.

Candidates for interview will be contacted week commencing 5th January 2015.

If you would like to discuss this opportunity please contact Colin Long, Health Education East of England on 01223 596966 or colinlong@nhs.net.

To apply, search 'Widening Participation Officer' on www.jobs.nhs.uk. Please make your application to the organisation where you would prefer to be based.

On target: Martin Westcott heads home Haverhill Borough's opener against Stowmarket.

Rovers fightback is enough for a point

A COMEBACK from two goals down saw Haverhill Rovers take a point away to Clacton in the Thurlow Nunn League, Premier Division.

The first half finished goalless, but Clacton broke the deadlock two minutes into the second half.

Nick Wilderspin was punished for a push in the back of an opponent in the penalty area, with Aaron Condon putting the resulting spot-kick past goalkeeper Jack Cherry.

The hosts' lead was doubled on 51 minutes with Adam Daniels sweeping the ball into the net, via a couple of deflections along the way, after Rovers had failed to clear.

However, the away side pulled one back in the 54th minute when Tyler Kemp found Dalton O'Brien, whose near right-post shot went in off the underside of the bar.

And Rovers were back on level terms in the 78th minute as James Murray's free kick left of the area was met by the head of Wilderspin, who made up for earlier in the game by scoring.

Rovers almost won it in the 81st minute, only for Murray's close-range effort from Martyn Farrant's cross to hit the underside of the bar and bounce away from danger.

In the First Division, two goals in quick succession from Martin Westcott and Harry O'Connor sealed a 2-1 win for Haverhill Borough at home to Stowmarket.

Borough started brightly, with the pace of Ryan Weaver causing consternation in the Stowmarket defence and Harry Halls testing Stowmarket goalkeeper Darren McCarrick with a couple of early shots.

Then, on 31 minutes, a curling free kick from Lee Hurkett was bravely glanced in by Westcott, under intense pressure from the Stowmarket defence.

Four minutes later, a free kick from Halls was collected in the penalty area by O'Connor who evaded onrushing defenders before slotting past McCarrick to double the hosts' lead.

Ben Licence reduced the arrears for Stowmarket with only three minutes played in the second half.

However, their chances were hit when Gavin Crane was dismissed for a crude tackle on Borough skipper Ross Elkins, while goalkeeper Charlie Turner made a fine save late on to ensure Borough took the points.

Wilby beaten into second at Hintlesham

PAUL Wilby took second in the latest meeting of the Suffolk Winter Alliance. The Haverhill head professional carded a level par round of 72 at Hintlesham.

Wilby finished two clear of joint-third place Jack Cardy, of the host club, and Waldringfield's Danny Barton in the professionals' competition.

However, he had no answer to the 64 round of winner Sam Forgan, whose effort included eight birdies and an eagle.

In the team competition, Haverhill foursome David Roope, Tim Daniels, Geoff Bush and Ted Fairhead took third with 88 points.

They were beaten into second on countback by Stoke-by-Nayland's Ian and Rob Benson, Keith Hodgeson and Shaun Underwood.

Stowmarket's Sam Forgan, Keith Rooney, Phil Coleman and Gus Cutting won the team event with 93.

> Youth football

Jenkinson on form in win

GEORGE Jenkinson doubled up for West Wrattling as they beat Huntingdon Town Rowdies 3-2 in Cambridge & District Colts League 15A.

Daniel Cordwell was also on target.

Brandon McKay fired three in Haverhill Rovers' 7-1 triumph over Newmarket Town in 15C.

David Scott, Connor Bevan, Jack Sizer and Billy Ager got one apiece for Haverhill.

Bradley Griffin, Cameron Larkin, Jack Young, Ellis Wiffen and Paul Jenkinson struck in West Wrattling's 5-1 triumph against Plantation in 17A.
